ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

HB 244 permits the attorney general to provide information regarding an investigation of an act or practice that may be unlawful under the Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Act to a person who filed a complaint about the act or practice with the attorney general. The bill provides limited immunity against charges of defamation of character, libel, slander, or damage to reputation to persons who make an allegation that an act or practice is unlawful under the Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Act.

This bill is not anticipated to have a fiscal impact on the Department of Law.
