ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill will likely increase the number of intakes received and investigated by Adult Protective Services. There are 16 Division of Public Assistance Offices statewide which provide public assistance services and come into contact with vulnerable adults needing protective services each month. This bill will provide for the reporting of suspected harm of these vulnerable adults to Adult Protective Services for intake screening, investigation, guardianship assessment, protective services, and assisted living assistance. Currently, confidentiality protections appear to conflict with and preclude the sharing of this protected information by employees and employees of DHSS to Adult Protective Services regarding abuse and neglect. The increase in the number of reports of harm as a result of this legislation is unknown.
