ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

If passed, this legislation would provide an additional category to the crime of providing false information to a peace officer. It would become a Class A misdemeanor for an individual to provide a false identity to a peace officer while under investigation, arrest or detention or while being served with an arrest warrant or being issued a citation.

A class A misdemeanor is punishable by up to one year in prison. It would be very difficult to determine the fiscal impact of this bill because we do not have any way of determining how many times this occurs or what kind of sentencing might result. It could be used as a negotiating tool and result in no additional time as well. Therefore, the Department of Corrections is submitting an indeterminate fiscal note.
