ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary.)

This bill changes the definition of what is a "conviction" for a sex offense, triggering a duty to register as a sex offender even if a defendant's judgment of conviction was set aside pursuant to A.S. 12.55.085. The obvious intent is to include those individuals in the current state registration scheme even though they successfully demonstrated their rehabilitation and had their convictions set aside years ago.

It is unknown how many individuals fit into this category. If all are charged with the crime of failure to register, it is likely some percentage will be appointed the Public Defender and the constitutionality of the statute will be litigated. It appears that some of this work is already in progress and any additional costs are too difficult to quantify.
