FISCAL NOTE

STATE OF ALASKA

BILL NO. SB 263
#1

2000 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

This bill contains a number of provisions that would affect the Public Defender Agency's operations. The bill makes violating protective orders entered in Child in Need of Aid (CINA) cases a misdemeanor. It reduces the authority of the courts to allow compromises in misdemeanor cases. Finally, it creates a mitigating factor that can be used in felony sentencings. An offense can be mitigated if the defendant reduces the impact of the offense on the victim by pleading guilty or no contest within 30 days of the arraignment.

We expect to have some additional misdemeanor cases because of the new misdemeanor offense of violating a CINA protective order. However, we cannot make an accurate estimate of the number of additional cases to which we would be appointed.

Allowing fewer civil compromises and creating the new mitigator will result in more work in our existing caseload. However, we do not expect a significant fiscal impact.

Based on this analysis, the Public Defender Agency is submitting an indeterminate fiscal note on this bill.
