 3 Constitution of the State of Alaska; and providing for an effective date."

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

5 * Section 1. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE. (a) The legislature finds that

6 (1) the year 2000 date-change problem already is affecting automation systems
 7 and the conduct of business worldwide, in both public and private sectors;

8 (2) the year 2000 problem will increasingly affect automation systems and 9 business operations as December 31, 1999, approaches and will continue to have substantial
 10 effects even beyond 2000;

11 (3) the year 2000 problem already is affecting the systems and operations of 12 state government and, if not corrected, will likely cause substantial disruptions in the provision
 13 of public services in Alaska;

14 (4) the year 2000 problem poses serious potential risks to life, health, safety,

1 and the economic well-being of all Alaskans;

2 (5) it is necessary to avoid such risks and to ensure that essential state
3 government functions and services continue without interruption; and

4 (6) the executive branch of government has identified its mission-critical
5 business functions, is directing its efforts towards avoiding and remediating potential year
6 2000-related failures in the automation systems that directly support those functions, and needs
7 to complete this work to ensure that essential state government functions and the provision
8 of essential state government services to Alaskans are not disrupted.
