 27 Services occupying a position with responsibility under AS 47.10, AS 47.17, or 30 placement of those children, or managing the work of employees performing those 31 casework functions on a regional basis.

1     * Sec. 7. The uncodified law of the State of Alaska is amended by adding a new section to 2 read:

3           TRANSITION. (a) A state employee who was employed by the state before 4 January 1, 2002, as a child protection worker may convert the credited service for that 5 position during that time to credited service as a child protection worker as enacted by this 6 Act by claiming the service as child protection worker service before the member is appointed
7 to retirement. When the member claims this credited service as state child protection worker
8 service, an indebtedness of the member to the system shall be established. The indebtedness 9 is equal to (1) the contributions to the system that the employee would have made if the 10 service had counted as state child protection worker service, less (2) the contributions to the 11 system that the employee actually made. Interest, as prescribed by regulation, accrues on this 12 indebtedness. Any outstanding indebtedness that exists at the time a person is appointed to 13 retirement will require an actuarial adjustment to the benefits payable based upon the service 14 claimed under this subsection.

15           (b) In this section, "state child protection worker" has the meaning given in 16 AS 39.35.680(41), enacted by sec. 6 of this Act.
