ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

HB 350 would expand the actions that could lead to a charge of terroristic threatening, a class C felony. Specifically, if an individual causes the evacuation of a public area, public conveyance, or building; disrupts the schedule of a public transportation entity; or threatens, even jokingly, a transportation service provider or transportation support services provider with physical injury, even if the person threatened was not placed in fear of physical injury, that individual could be charged with this crime.

The language in subsection (2) regarding threats to persons actually providing transportation services or support services would cover a very large variety of situations not currently considered felonies. Felony prosecutions are costly, but the Department of Law has no way of estimating how many new cases might be referred for prosecution if this bill becomes law, and cannot assign a potential fiscal impact.
