ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

As it relates to the Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend Division, this legislation expands the reach of state statute to withhold dividends from Alaskans convicted of criminal offenses. The legislation (Section 9, AS 43.23.005(d)) would expand the number of non-eligible Alaskans to include people convicted or incarcerated on a misdemeanor charge during the dividend eligibility year if they also have a prior conviction for a felony. Existing statute already denies the dividend to applicants convicted or incarcerated during the eligibility year on a felony charge or his or her third misdemeanor.

The Dividend Division does not expect this legislation to have a fiscal impact on the operating budget of the dividend program.

It is not possible to estimate the number of applicants who might lose their dividend eligibility under this legislation. However, it should be noted that denying dividends to some of the applicants covered by this legislation could actually deny the funds to creditors of those applicants, including the Child Support Enforcement Division, state student loan program, private businesses and others.
