ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

SB 126 creates a new cause of action which allows married couples to remain legally married but obtain many of the legal benefits of a divorce or dissolution action. The couple remain married, however the rights and responsibilities of the couple can be modified by the decree, including provisions for child custody and visitation, child support, spousal support, and provisions for division of property and debts.

Passage of SB 126 will have no fiscal impact on the Department of Law.
