ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)
 This bill makes changes to both civil and criminal law to implement an action plan against intolerance and "hate crimes" in Alaska. It would prohibit the suspension of imposition of sentences in hate crimes cases; expand the list of attributes permitting the imposition of an aggravated sentence; establish mandatory minimum sentences for hate crime misdemeanors; set sanctions for juveniles that commit hate crimes; and enact a civil right of action for discriminatory harassment.

 Passage of this legislation is not anticipated to have a fiscal impact on the Department of Law. The statutory changes relating to prosecutions increase the penalties individuals convicted of these crimes must face, and are not expected to cause a significant increase in caseload.
