

HOUSE JOURNAL

ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Thursday

March 22, 2001

Seventy-fourth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Porter at 10:07 a.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representatives Morgan and Whitaker had been previously excused from a call of the House today. Representative Kohring was absent and his presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Reverend Paul D. Beran of Resurrection Lutheran Church. Representative Hudson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it appears below:

Gracious God, our Heavenly Father, You are from everlasting to everlasting. We behold Your handiwork in the snow-capped surrounding mountains, in the innocent eyes of a little child, and in the uniqueness of each person here.

Before You, even the nations rise and fall. Before You, we are like a passing breath. Yet in Your kindness, which we do not merit or deserve, You have given us the gift of this day in the brevity of our lives.

As we face issues and decisions save us from the temptation of being short-sighted. Enable us to see the faces of our children, grandchildren, and even of those yet unborn. Then grant us the vision and courage to exercise wise leadership. We confess on our own, we scarcely see one step ahead, but You know all things, even the ending before the beginning. So place the mantel of Your wisdom over our shoulders that we may lead aright. In the Name of Him who came not to be served, but to serve, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Rokeberg.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative James moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 72nd and 73rd legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The Governor's transmittal letter dated March 20, 2001, appears below:

"Dear Speaker Porter:

Alaska's student loan program has achieved great success in the past few years. The Commission on Postsecondary Education and the Alaska Student Loan Corporation have turned the program around -- running it in the black for the first time in history and paying a dividend back to the state. This year the dividend payment is $2.2 million with another $4 million expected for fiscal year 2002. All of this while serving over 90,000 Alaska student loan customers with $615 million in loans.

This bill I transmit today establishes the AlaskAdvantage Loan Program, the next step in continuing the growth and financial integrity of the state student loan program. Under this legislation, Alaska would participate in the federal guaranteed student loan program which brings benefits including low interest rates for borrowers and reduced risk to the state through federal loan guarantees.

This bill also creates a supplemental loan program to provide financial assistance in the event the AlaskAdvantage Loan is insufficient to cover education costs or the student does not qualify for assistance under the federal guaranteed student loan program.

This bill will create a one-stop financial aid information center and financial opportunity, guaranty the lowest possible borrowing rates, streamline aid delivery and reduce financial risk to the State through the federal guarantee. This program will also offer expanded options for borrowers with special needs in loan repayment.

At a time when access to quality education is at the forefront of our legislative agenda, I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,
/s/
Tony Knowles
Governor"
