ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Thursday

June 7, 2001

First Day

Pursuant to the Governor's proclamation, the House was called to order by Speaker Porter at 11:05 a.m.

Roll call showed 34 members present. Representatives Kohring and Moses were absent.

Representative James moved and asked unanimous consent that the following members be excused from a call of the House. There being no objection, the members were excused as noted:

Representative Masek - from today to 5:00 p.m., June 9, 2001

Representative Meyer - from today to 5:30 p.m., June 10, 2001

Representative Williams - from 10:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., plane time, today

Representative Green - from today to 4:00 p.m., plane time, June 13, 2001

The invocation was offered by the Reverend Paul Beran of Resurrection Lutheran Church. Representative Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it appears below:

Gracious God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, and our confidence this day: As our founding fathers faced the deadlock of seemingly insurmountable barriers, they cried out to You for help and guidance; and You gave them insight and unity to forge a constitution which has helped to mold this great land of America.

Today we cry out to You for help and guidance. You have hollowed out the seas and seeded them with teeming marine life. You have stood the mountains tall and grow the majestic forests. You cause the great rivers to wind their way to the sea. You have commanded us to take good care of Your creation as responsible stewards before You. You have given us eyes to see and lives to enjoy. We thank You for the many people that can visit and enjoy the great beauty of Alaska. Give us insight and unity as we seek to draft appropriate legislation, that we may be instruments in Your eternal hands. In the Name of Jesus I pray. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Berkowitz.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative James moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 120th and 121st legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Governor's proclamation, dated May 8, 2001, was received:

"Under the authority of art. II, sec. 9, and art. III, sec. 17, of the Alaska Constitution, and in the public interest, I call the Twenty-Second Legislature of the State of Alaska into its first special session at Juneau, Alaska, in the legislative chambers on May 21, 2001, at 10:00 a.m. to consider the enactment of law:

Requiring the owners or operators of certain commercial passenger vessels operating in the marine waters of the state to register with the Department of Environmental Conservation and providing for sampling, testing, record keeping, and reporting requirements relating to commercial passenger vessels' sewage, graywater, hazardous substances, hazardous wastes, solid wastes, and other pollutants; authorizing the Department of Environmental Conservation to provide for independent verification of compliance by commercial passenger vessels; prohibiting or limiting the discharge of sewage and graywater from commercial passenger vessels; establishing fees applicable to commercial passenger vessels; authorizing the Department of Environmental Conservation to research, monitor, and study discharges and releases from commercial passenger vessels and their effects on the environment, including the opacity of air emissions from the vessels; establishing penalties for failure to comply with certain laws relating to commercial passenger vessels; and establishing a commercial passenger vessel coastal protection fund.

Dated at Juneau, Alaska this 8th day of May, 2001.

Done by,
/s/
Tony Knowles
Governor"

The following Governor's proclamation, dated May 14, 2001, was received:

"Under the authority of art. II, sec. 9, and art. III, sec. 17, of the Alaska Constitution, and in the public interest, I amend the call to special session issued on May 8, 2001, by changing the convening date of the special session.

Under the foregoing authority and for the purpose of amending the proclamation dated May 8, 2001, I call the Twenty-Second Legislature of the State of Alaska into its first special session at Juneau, Alaska, in the legislative chambers on June 7, 2001, at 10:00 a.m. to consider the enactment of law:

Requiring the owners or operators of certain commercial passenger vessels operating in the marine waters of the state to register with the Department of Environmental Conservation and providing for sampling, testing, record keeping, and reporting

The following letter, dated May 29, 2001, was received:

"Dear Speaker Porter:

On this date I have signed the following bill passed by the first session of the Twenty-second Alaska State Legislature and am transmitting the engrossed and enrolled copies to the Lieutenant Governor's Office for permanent filing:

SENATE CS FOR CS FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 149(FIN) am S

"An Act expressing legislative intent regarding correctional facility space; relating to correctional facility space; authorizing the Department of Corrections to enter into an agreement to lease facilities for the confinement and care of prisoners within the Kenai Peninsula Borough; and providing for an effective date."

Chapter No. 32, SLA 2001

[Effective Date: June 1, 2001]

My action on this legislation will enable the Department of Corrections to continue working with the Kenai Peninsula Borough to help meet the State's need for prison beds in Alaska.

In deciding to sign this bill, I have weighed the five long-standing principles by which my Administration has measured proposed prison expansion in Alaska. They are:

- Protecting the public's safety;
- Consistency with best correctional practices;
- Community participation through government-to-government transactions;
- Addressing statewide and regional needs; and
- Cost-effectiveness.

If this proposed prison is to proceed, it will do so only if the Kenai Peninsula Borough continues the government-to-government relationship it has established with the state on this project. In turn, those negotiations will proceed only if the state Department of Corrections is assured the public safety will be protected through the use of best correctional practices. It is important to note that this bill says the commissioner may order the Borough to terminate its contract with a private, third-party prison vendor if that vendor is not operating a safe or secure facility.

As for statewide and regional needs, this bill represents a step in the right direction but is far from complete. My Administration will continue to advocate jail and prison expansion in other regions of Alaska. However, the Kenai area is on the Department's list for more needed beds. In addition, because the state has contracted for years with a private prison operator in Arizona to house Alaska inmates, I believe it is of statewide interest and importance to bring those dollars, those jobs, and those inmates back to Alaska. If this project is completed, the Legislature and this and subsequent administrations must continue to work together to build more beds, find alternatives to prison where appropriate, and do all we can to reduce future inmate populations through well-funded early childhood and education programs.

The cost-effectiveness of this project is protected through another clause in the bill that says the Department of Corrections "may" enter into an agreement with the Borough to lease prison beds. As the Department has stated, any such agreement must describe how to maximize the purchasing value of public funds spent on the design, construction and operation of the proposed prison. Negotiations on such an agreement, should the project move forward, will involve the good-faith efforts of both the Department and the Borough to protect the financial interests of the citizens of the State of Alaska and the Kenai Peninsula Borough. Borough Mayor Dale Bagley, in a May 25 letter to Corrections Commissioner Margaret Pugh, acknowledges their mutual responsibilities: "Once HB 149 is signed into law, we could then continue the discussion we began earlier this week concerning how we can meet your five principles, as well as our mutual fiduciary duties."

My signature on this bill continues the process by which a prison could be built. Many steps remain to accomplish this goal, including development of an intergovernmental agreement as well as negotiation of necessary agreements regarding the lease and operation of such a prison facility. Those steps, coupled with the permissive nature of the legislation and the fact that the local assembly and Legislature have voted favorably for the project, all lead me to the conclusion to proceed with the possibility of a new prison facility being constructed in the Kenai Peninsula Borough.

Sincerely,
/s/
Tony Knowles
Governor"

SB 164

The following letter, dated May 16, 2001, was received:

"Dear Speaker Porter:

On this date I have signed the following bill, passed by the first session of the Twenty-second Alaska State Legislature, and am transmitting the engrossed and enrolled copies to the Lieutenant Governor's Office for permanent filing:

HOUSE CS FOR SENATE BILL NO. 164(O&G)

"An Act prohibiting leases under the Right-of-Way Leasing Act on state land in or adjacent to the Beaufort Sea; and providing for an effective date."

Chapter No. 29, SLA 2001
[Effective Date: May 17, 2001]

For the past year I have advocated strongly for a gasline route that would follow the TAPS alignment to Fairbanks and then the Alaska Highway through Canada to Lower 48 markets. I believe this route best meets the economic, financial, and environmental goals of Alaskans in the construction and operation of this important project while supplying much-needed natural gas to the largest natural gas market in the world.

However, the form and approach of this legislation is troubling. The intent of this legislation is best suited for a resolution rather than a bill. Changing statutes to prohibit the issuance of a specific right-of-way needlessly and inappropriately infringes on normal executive functions and the general rights-of-way processes already in law.

In signing this legislation, we must be careful that it not end up serving the opposite of its intent, making it harder to achieve our goal of immediate gasline construction along the Alaska Highway. Any North American gasline would traverse Canadian territory and will require robust Canadian support. We certainly do not want to proceed in ways that will diminish the likelihood of that support.

I encourage us to continue our pursuit of gasline construction with a positive tone and concrete actions to build the right business environment and international cooperation for an Alaska Highway gasline.

Sincerely,
/s/
Tony Knowles
Governor"
