Heavenly Father,

We are gathered here today, at this moment, with great reverence to You, our Lord and Master. We seek Your divine guidance as we struggle through these last few days of our civic responsibilities.

You made us, one and all, what we are. You made us in Your image and endowed us with individual traits and You have guided us through our separate walks of life, good and bad.

Lord, forgive us for our impatience and occasional breaks of selfishness and anger. Place Your calming hand over this small building and settle our troubled souls. As we finish our work at hand, let our product be good for all we serve. We ask this in the Name of Jesus, the Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Croft.
