ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Thursday

January 18, 2001

Eleventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Halford at 11:16 a.m.

The roll showed eighteen members present. Senators Green, Taylor were excused from a call of the Senate.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Major Larry Fankhauser of The Salvation Army. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

This is the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. Dear God, we thank You this day for each senator, who with care and thoughtfulness, seeks to serve this state and its people.

We realize that we must look to a higher power than ourselves, and so as a nation under God we look to You for keen minds, clear thoughts, and purposeful direction. There are many voices, opinions, agendas; but as we seek Your insight and wisdom, we rest assured that right decisions will be made.

Thank You God for all that is ours in this moment in time. Amen.

Senator Elton led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Leman moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the tenth legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Messages from the GovernorSB 35

Message dated January 17 was received, regarding SENATE BILL NO. 35, "An Act relating to electronic application for and issuance of licenses, permits, and tags issued by the Department of Fish and Game; relating to violations regarding a license, permit, or tag applied for or issued electronically; and providing for an effective date":

Dear President Halford:

This letter replaces my letter dated January 12, 2001 as shown in 2001 Senate Journal, pages 71-72, concerning SB 35.

Since the beginning of my Administration, state agencies have increasingly moved into the high technology age. It is now common for agencies to use electronic means to interact with the public, whether it be to renew a driver's license, check the status of a permanent fund dividend application, or offer up-to-the-minute election results.

The bill I transmitted January 12 is yet another effort by the state to make it easier for the public to conduct business with state government through electronic media. Building upon the Internet application process currently in place for applying for a fishing or hunting license, it will lay the groundwork for the state to eventually issue paperless licenses.

A process allowing fishers and hunters to apply for and receive licenses, permits, or tags electronically should reduce paperwork for the public and the state while building a better, more efficient system for license management. This expedited process will improve fish and wildlife law enforcement efforts by making the online license data file available immediately.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,
/s/
Tony Knowles
Governor

Introduction and Reference of Senate Bills

SB 46

SENATE BILL NO. 46 BY THE SENATE RULES COMMITTEE
BY REQUEST OF THE GOVERNOR, entitled:

"An Act relating to increasing the minimum hourly wage under the Alaska Wage and Hour Act; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Labor and Commerce and Finance Committees.

The following fiscal information was published today:

Fiscal Note No. 1, zero, Department of Administration

Fiscal Note No. 2, Department of Health and Social Services

Governor's transmittal letter dated January 17:

Dear President Halford:

At $5.65 an hour, Alaska's minimum wage is the lowest on the West Coast, some eighty-five cents under the next lowest minimum wage. A single parent working year-round at minimum wage earns only two-thirds of the poverty level for a family of three and cannot hope to rise out of poverty. These are disturbing facts that must change.

This bill I transmit today is meant to offer Alaska's low wage workers a better quality of life by increasing the minimum wage to $6.40 on October 1, 2001, followed by a raise to $7.15 a year later. The wage would then adjust annually to match inflation, increasing by pennies per year, but protecting the minimal essential purchasing power of low-wage workers.

Alaska's current minimum wage is tied to the federal law. So we are reliant on whether Congress decides a raise is in order, rather than being able to determine the wage needs specifically for Alaskans. This outdated relationship has caused our minimum wage to remain stagnant for as long as nine years, from 1981 to 1990. And it's currently been more than 3 years since the last increase.

We know Alaska's economy rarely moves in exact synchronization with the rest of the country. To tie our workers' wages to what the rest of the country is doing is a disservice to Alaskans. That is why it is so important not only to raise Alaska's minimum wage, but to provide for its continued adjustment to our local economy.

We have made great progress in the past four years in moving Alaskans from welfare to work. But in FY 2000, 22 percent of public assistance recipients entering the workforce earned less than $6.50 per hour. Increasing the wage of these Alaskans will reduce the temporary cash assistance needed to support their families.

Working for a minimum wage in Alaska should not mean a minimum quality of life. In the interest of allowing Alaskans the opportunity to achieve financial independence, I urge your prompt and favorable action on this important measure.

Sincerely,
/s/
Tony Knowles
Governor
