

SENATE JOURNAL

ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE -- SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

April 10, 2002

Eighty-seventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Halford at 11:23 a.m.

The roll showed sixteen members present. Senators Donley, Green, Kelly, Therriault were absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Mike Rose of the Juneau Christian Center. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Heavenly Father, thank You for this day, and the opportunity we have to live this day to its fullest in this great state of Alaska. Lord, help us to navigate today without the burden of yesterday's regrets, and the heaviness of tomorrow's worries, as we were not designed to carry that heavy load of care. Help us to remember that all the water in the world, however hard it tried could never ever sink a ship unless it got inside, and all the troubles in this life might wear us pretty thin, but they won't hurt us one least bit, unless we let them in. Help us remember the instructions in Your Word, which tell us not to worry about anything, but to pray about everything, and we will have Your peace.

Lord, we ask today that You would give the Senate special wisdom and direction regarding the important decisions that are being made in this chamber. We also ask You to bless and protect the families of the Senate and the House today. We also pray for Your guidance and direction for our President and his advisors in decisions being made regarding the Middle East crisis.

Thank You for being a God Who hears and answers
prayer! In Jesus' Name I pray. Amen.

Senator Cowdery led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Leman moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the eighty-sixth legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

The presence of Senator Therriault was noted.
