CALL TO ORDER

REPRESENTATIVE LESIL McGUIRE, Chair, convened the House Special Committee on Economic Development, Trade and Tourism meeting at 5:13 p.m.

PRESENT

Committee members present were Representatives McGuire, Green, Morgan, Dyson, and Crawford.

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

SANDRA MOLLER, President and CEO, Aleut Enterprises, discussed Adak's current socioeconomic situation and what is possible for the future. She described Adak's position now as favorable and she hopes that using some key resources and components of the community will bring in more people and economic opportunities.
She would like to see Adak become a very important place for people to use for international trade routes and that tourism will add to the expanding economy.

CLEM TILLION, Associate, Aleut Enterprises, described some of the opportunities that were there for trade involving seafood and general export opportunities. He reiterated some of Ms.
Moller's comments about the area being used for international trade. He discussed the possibilities of and barriers to the construction of a prison.

REPRESENTATIVE DYSON inquired about the relocation of housing units and its progress. Also, he wanted to know if there are certain archeological sites that still exist.

REPRESENTATIVE GREEN inquired about the way in which the underground fuel storage standards were able to be met. Also, he wanted to know about the use of the old barracks in terms of their being made into a prison.

REPRESENTATIVE CRAWFORD wanted to know about the types of planes that fly into Adak.

CHAIR MCGUIRE discussed Sakhalin and possible refueling in Adak in the future.
