The changes on page 1 and 3 would fund guardians for abused and neglected children in court through the Office of Public Advocacy ($1,100,000); and assistance for families to and adopt disabled children through subsidized adoptions and guardianships ($833,300) for a total addition of $1,933,300.

The changes on pages 5 through 9 remove the supplemental requests for the Departments of Law ($1,182,600), Public Safety ($171,100), and Transportation & Public Facilities ($2,562,000) for a savings of $3,915,700. These increments were requested in last year's budget and rejected by the Legislature. The Department's ignored the Legislature's action and spent the money. Now they are asking for a supplemental to make up the difference. Rejecting this supplemental request will save money, protect the Legislature's power to appropriate, and promote fiscal economy.

This amendment saves a total of $1,982,400.
