MEMORANDUM

May 18, 2003

SUBJECT: Amendment to SB 173(efd fld)
(Work Order No. 23-GS1092\AA.1)

TO: Representative David Guttenberg
Attn: Jomo

FROM:  Theresa L. Bannister
Legislative Counsel

You have asked for a brief explanation of what the amendment (Work Order No. 23-GS1092\AA.1) to SB 173(efd fld) does. This memo responds to that request.

The amendment changes the bill so that the present statutory scheme for the Alaska Science and Technology Foundation remains on the books,<sup>1</sup> but prohibits the Foundation from functioning, except as expressly allowed by the other existing parts of the bill (see, for example, bill page 10, lines 16 - 22). The language on amendment page 3, lines 6 - 10, expressly states that the Foundation is not allowed to have an executive director or other staff, to have members on its board, to have meetings, to receive money unless by appropriation, or to perform any other functions, except as otherwise expressly allowed under the bill.

If I may be of further assistance, please advise.

<sup>1</sup> For your information, the statutory scheme that is retained includes related statutory provisions like AS 39.25.110(25) (staff being in exempt service) and AS 44.99.030(a)(11) (prohibiting lobbying contracts).
