Referred: Judiciary

A BILL

FOR AN ACT ENTITLED

1 "An Act adopting a version of the Revised Uniform Arbitration Act; relating to the 2 state's existing Uniform Arbitration Act; amending Rules 3, 18, 19, 20, and 21, Alaska
3 Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 601, Alaska Rules of Evidence, and Rule 402, Alaska
4 Rules of Appellate Procedure; and providing for an effective date."

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

6 * Section 1. AS 09.43.010 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

7 (b) Notwithstanding (a) of this section, AS 09.43.010 - 09.43.180 do not apply 8 to an agreement or a contract unless the agreement or contract is entered into before 9 the effective date of AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595 and is not otherwise subject to 10 AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595.

11 * Sec. 2. AS 09.43 is amended by adding new sections to read:

12 Article 3. Revised Uniform Arbitration Act.

13 Sec. 09.43.300. Application. (a) AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595 govern an 14 agreement to arbitrate made on or after January 1, 2004.

1 (b) AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595 govern an agreement to arbitrate made before 2 January 1, 2004, if all the parties to the agreement or to the arbitration proceeding 3 agree in a record that AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595 govern the agreement.

4 (c) Except as provided by (d) of this section, AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595 do not 5 apply to a labor-management contract unless they are incorporated into the contract or 6 their application is provided for by contract.

7 (d) AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595 do not apply to a collective bargaining
 8 agreement subject to AS 23.40.070 - 23.40.260, except as provided by AS 23.40.070 - 9 23.40.260.

10 Sec. 09.43.310. Effect of agreement to arbitrate; nonwaivable provisions.

11 (a) Except as otherwise provided in (b) and (c) of this section, a party to an agreement 12 to arbitrate or arbitration proceeding may waive, or the parties may vary the effect of, 13 the requirements of AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595 to the extent permitted by law.

14 (b) Before a controversy arises that is subject to an agreement to arbitrate, a 15 party to the agreement may not

16 (1) waive or agree to vary the effect of the requirements of 17 AS 09.43.320, 09.43.330(a), 09.43.350, 09.43.440(a) or (b), 09.43.530, or 09.43.550;

18 (2) agree to unreasonably restrict the right under AS 09.43.360 to 19 notice of the initiation of an arbitration proceeding;

20 (3) agree to unreasonably restrict the right under AS 09.43.390 to 21 disclosure of any facts by a neutral arbitrator; or 22 (4) waive the right under AS 09.43.430 of a party to an agreement to 23 arbitrate to be represented by an attorney at a proceeding or hearing under 24 AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595, but an employer and a labor organization may waive the 25 right to representation by an attorney in a labor arbitration.

26 (c) A party to an agreement to arbitrate or arbitration proceeding may not 27 waive, or the parties may not vary the effect of, the requirements of this section, 28 AS 09.43.300(a), (c), or (d), 09.43.340, 09.43.410, 09.43.450, 09.43.470(d) or (e), 29 09.43.490, 09.43.500, 09.43.510, 09.43.520, 09.43.560, or 09.43.570.

30 Sec. 09.43.320. Application for judicial relief. Except as otherwise provided 31 in AS 09.43.550, an application for judicial relief under AS 09.43.300 - 09.43.595

1 shall be made and heard in the manner provided by the court rules of this state.

2 Sec. 09.43.330. Validity of agreement to arbitrate. (a) An agreement 3 contained in a record to submit to arbitration an existing or subsequent controversy 4 arising between the parties to the agreement is valid, enforceable, and irrevocable 5 except upon a ground that exists at law or in equity for the revocation of a contract.

6 (b) The court shall decide whether an agreement to arbitrate exists or a 7 controversy is subject to an agreement to arbitrate.

8 (c) An arbitrator shall decide whether a condition precedent to arbitrability has 9 been fulfilled and whether a contract containing a valid agreement to arbitrate is 10 enforceable.

11 (d) If a party to a judicial proceeding challenges the existence of, or claims 12 that a controversy is not subject to, an agreement to arbitrate, the arbitration 13 proceeding may continue pending final resolution of the issue by the court, unless the 14 court otherwise orders.

15 Sec. 09.43.340. Application to compel arbitration; stay of related 16 proceedings. (a) On application of a person showing an agreement to arbitrate and 17 alleging another person's refusal to arbitrate under the agreement,

18 (1) if the refusing party does not appear or does not oppose the 19 application, the court shall order the parties to arbitrate; and 20 (2) if the refusing party opposes the application, the court shall proceed 21 summarily to decide the issue and order the parties to arbitrate unless it finds that there 22 is no enforceable agreement to arbitrate.

23 (b) On application of a person alleging that an arbitration proceeding has been 24 initiated or threatened but that there is not an agreement to arbitrate, the court shall 25 proceed summarily to decide the issue. If the court finds that there is an enforceable 26 agreement to arbitrate, the court shall order the parties to arbitrate.

27 (c) If the court finds that there is not an enforceable agreement, the court may 28 not, under (a) or (b) of this section, order the parties to arbitrate.

29 (d) The court may not refuse to order arbitration because the claim subject to 30 arbitration lacks merit or because grounds for the claim have not been established.

31 (e) If a proceeding involving a claim referable to arbitration under an alleged

1 agreement to arbitrate is pending in court, an application under this section shall be 2 made in that court. Otherwise, an application under this section may be made in any 3 court as provided in AS 09.43.540.

4 (f) If a party makes an application to the court to order arbitration, the court 5 shall, on just terms, stay a judicial proceeding that involves a claim alleged to be 6 subject to the arbitration until the court renders a final decision under this section.

7 (g) If the court orders arbitration, the court shall, on just terms, stay a judicial 8 proceeding that involves a claim subject to the arbitration. If a claim subject to the 9 arbitration is severable, the court may limit the stay to that claim.

10 Sec. 09.43.350. Provisional remedies. (a) Before an arbitrator is appointed 11 and is authorized and able to act, the court, upon application of a party to an 12 arbitration proceeding and for good cause shown, may enter an order for provisional 13 remedies to protect the effectiveness of the arbitration proceeding to the same extent 14 and under the same conditions as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action.

15 (b) After an arbitrator is appointed and is authorized and able to act,

16 (1) the arbitrator may issue the orders for provisional remedies, 17 including interim awards, that the arbitrator finds necessary to protect the 18 effectiveness of the arbitration proceeding and to promote the fair and expeditious 19 resolution of the controversy, to the same extent and under the same conditions as if 20 the controversy were the subject of a civil action; and 21 (2) a party to an arbitration proceeding may apply to the court for a 22 provisional remedy only if the matter is urgent and the arbitrator is not able to act 23 timely or the arbitrator cannot provide an adequate remedy.

24 (c) A party does not waive a right of arbitration by making an application 25 under (a) or (b) of this section.

26 Sec. 09.43.360. Initiation of arbitration. (a) A person initiates an arbitration 27 proceeding by giving notice in a record to the other parties to the agreement to 28 arbitrate in the agreed manner between the parties or, in the absence of agreement, by 29 certified or registered mail, return receipt requested and obtained, or by service as 30 authorized for the commencement of a civil action. The notice must describe the 31 nature of the controversy and the remedy sought.

1 (b) Unless a person objects for lack or insufficiency of notice under 2 AS 09.43.420(c) not later than the beginning of the arbitration hearing, the person, by 3 appearing at the hearing, waives any objection to lack or insufficiency of notice.

4 Sec. 09.43.370. Consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings. (a) 5 Except as otherwise provided in (c) of this section, upon application of a party to an 6 agreement to arbitrate or arbitration proceeding, the court may order consolidation of 7 separate arbitration proceedings as to all or some of the claims if

8 (1) there are separate agreements to arbitrate or separate arbitration 9 proceedings between the same persons or one of them is a party to a separate 10 agreement to arbitrate or a separate arbitration proceeding with a third person;

11 (2) the claims subject to the agreements to arbitrate arise in substantial 12 part from the same transaction or series of related transactions;

13 (3) the existence of a common issue of law or fact creates the 14 possibility of conflicting decisions in the separate arbitration proceedings; and 15 (4) prejudice resulting from a failure to consolidate is not outweighed 16 by the risk of undue delay or prejudice to the rights of or hardship to parties opposing 17 consolidation.

18 (b) The court may order consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings as to 19 some claims and allow other claims to be resolved in separate arbitration proceedings.

20 (c) The court may not order consolidation of the claims of a party to an 21 agreement to arbitrate if the agreement prohibits consolidation.

22 Sec. 09.43.380. Appointment of arbitrator; service as a neutral arbitrator.

23 (a) If the parties to an agreement to arbitrate agree on a method for appointing an 24 arbitrator, that method shall be followed, unless the method fails. If the parties have 25 not agreed on a method, the agreed method fails, or an arbitrator appointed fails or is 26 unable to act and a successor has not been appointed, the court, on application of a 27 party to the arbitration proceeding, shall appoint the arbitrator. An arbitrator appointed 28 by the court has all the powers of an arbitrator designated in the agreement to arbitrate 29 or appointed under the agreed method.

30 (b) An individual who has a known, direct, and material interest in the 31 outcome of the arbitration proceeding or a known, existing, and substantial

1 relationship with a party may not serve as an arbitrator required by an agreement to be 2 neutral.

3 Sec. 09.43.390. Disclosure by arbitrator. (a) Before accepting appointment, 4 an individual who is requested to serve as an arbitrator shall, after making a reasonable 5 inquiry, disclose to all parties to the agreement to arbitrate and arbitration proceeding 6 and to other arbitrators any known facts that a reasonable person would consider likely 7 to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator in the arbitration proceeding, including

8 (1) a financial or personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration 9 proceeding; and

10 (2) an existing or past relationship with a party to the agreement to 11 arbitrate or arbitration proceeding, counsel for or representatives of the parties, a 12 witness, or another arbitrator.

13 (b) An arbitrator has a continuing obligation to disclose to all parties to the 14 agreement to arbitrate and arbitration proceeding and to other arbitrators any facts that 15 the arbitrator learns after accepting appointment that a reasonable person would 16 consider likely to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator.

17 (c) If an arbitrator discloses a fact required by (a) or (b) of this section to be 18 disclosed and a party timely objects to the appointment or continued service of the 19 arbitrator based on the fact disclosed, the objection may be a ground under 20 AS 09.43.500(a)(2) for vacating an award made by the arbitrator.

21 (d) If the arbitrator did not disclose a fact as required by (a) or (b) of this 22 section, upon timely objection by a party, the court may, under AS 09.43.500(a)(2), 23 vacate an award.

24 (e) An arbitrator appointed as a neutral arbitrator who does not disclose a 25 known, direct, and material interest in the outcome of the arbitration proceeding or a 26 known, existing, and substantial relationship with a party is rebuttably presumed to act 27 with evident partiality under AS 09.43.500(a)(2).

28 (f) If the parties to an arbitration proceeding agree to the procedures of an 29 arbitration organization or other procedures for challenges to arbitrators before an 30 award is made, substantial compliance with those procedures is a condition precedent 31 to an application to vacate an award on that ground under AS 09.43.500(a)(2).

1           Sec. 09.43.400. Action by majority. If there is more than one arbitrator, the 2 powers of an arbitrator shall be exercised by a majority of the arbitrators, but all of 3 them shall conduct the hearing under AS 09.43.420(c).

4           Sec. 09.43.410. Immunity of arbitrator; competency to testify; attorney
5 fees and costs. (a) An arbitrator or an arbitration organization acting in that capacity 6 is immune from civil liability to the same extent as a judge of a court of this state 7 acting in a judicial capacity.

8           (b) The immunity afforded by this section supplements any immunity under 9 other law.

10          (c) The failure of an arbitrator to make a disclosure required by AS 09.43.390 11 does not cause a loss of immunity under this section.

12          (d) In a judicial, administrative, or similar proceeding, an arbitrator or 13 representative of an arbitration organization is not competent to testify and may not be 14 required to produce records as to a statement, conduct, a decision, or a ruling 15 occurring during the arbitration proceeding to the same extent as a judge of a court of 16 this state acting in a judicial capacity. This subsection does not apply to 17               (1) the extent necessary to determine the claim of an arbitrator, 18 arbitration organization, or representative of the arbitration organization against a 19 party to the arbitration proceeding; or

20               (2) a hearing on an application to vacate an award under 21 AS 09.43.500(a)(1) or (2) if the applicant establishes prima facie that a ground for 22 vacating the award exists.

23          (e) If a person commences a civil action against an arbitrator, arbitration 24 organization, or representative of an arbitration organization arising from the services 25 of the arbitrator, organization, or representative, or if a person seeks to compel an 26 arbitrator or a representative of an arbitration organization to testify or produce 27 records in violation of (d) of this section, and the court decides that the arbitrator, 28 arbitration organization, or representative of an arbitration organization is immune 29 from civil liability or that the arbitrator or representative of the organization is not 30 competent to testify, the court shall award to the arbitrator, organization, or 31 representative attorney fees and expenses of litigation as determined under the court

1 rules of this state.

2 Sec. 09.43.420. Arbitration process. (a) An arbitrator may conduct an 3 arbitration in the manner the arbitrator considers appropriate for a fair and expeditious 4 disposition of the proceeding. The authority conferred upon the arbitrator includes the 5 power to hold conferences with the parties to the arbitration proceeding before the 6 hearing and, among other matters, determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality, 7 and weight of any evidence.

8 (b) An arbitrator may decide a request for summary disposition of a claim or 9 particular issue

10 (1) if all interested parties agree; or

11 (2) on request of one party to the arbitration proceeding if that party 12 gives notice to all other parties to the proceeding and the other parties have a 13 reasonable opportunity to respond.

14 (c) If an arbitrator orders a hearing, the arbitrator shall set a time and place and 15 give notice of the hearing not less than five days before the hearing begins. Unless a 16 party to the arbitration proceeding makes an objection to lack or insufficiency of 17 notice not later than the beginning of the hearing, the party's appearance at the hearing 18 waives the objection. On request of a party to the arbitration proceeding and for good 19 cause shown, or on the arbitrator's own initiative, the arbitrator may adjourn the 20 hearing from time to time as necessary but may not postpone the hearing to a time 21 later than that fixed by the agreement to arbitrate for making the award unless the 22 parties to the arbitration proceeding consent to a later date. The arbitrator may hear 23 and decide the controversy on the evidence produced although a party who was 24 notified of the arbitration proceeding did not appear. The court, on request, may direct 25 the arbitrator to conduct the hearing promptly and render a timely decision.

26 (d) At a hearing under (c) of this section, a party to the arbitration proceeding 27 has a right to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy, and to 28 cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing.

29 (e) If an arbitrator ceases or is unable to act during the arbitration proceeding, 30 a replacement arbitrator shall be appointed under AS 09.43.380 to continue the 31 proceeding and to resolve the controversy.

1           Sec. 09.43.430. Representation by attorney. A party to an arbitration 2 proceeding may be represented by an attorney.

3           Sec. 09.43.440. Witnesses; subpoenas; depositions; discovery. (a) An 4 arbitrator may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness and for the production 5 of records and other evidence at a hearing and may administer oaths. A subpoena shall 6 be served in the manner for service of subpoenas in a civil action and, on application 7 to the court by a party to the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the 8 manner for enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action.

9           (b) In order to make the proceedings fair, expeditious, and cost-effective, on 10 request of a party to or witness in an arbitration proceeding, an arbitrator may permit a 11 deposition of a witness to be taken for use as evidence at the hearing, including a 12 witness who cannot be subpoenaed for or is unable to attend a hearing. The arbitrator 13 shall determine the conditions under which the deposition is taken.

14           (c) An arbitrator may permit the discovery the arbitrator decides is appropriate 15 in the circumstances, taking into account the needs of the parties to the arbitration 16 proceeding and other affected persons and the desirability of making the proceeding 17 fair, expeditious, and cost-effective.

18           (d) If an arbitrator permits discovery under (c) of this section, the arbitrator 19 may order a party to the arbitration proceeding to comply with the arbitrator's 20 discovery-related orders, issue subpoenas for the attendance of a witness and for the 21 production of records and other evidence at a discovery proceeding, and take action 22 against a noncomplying party to the extent a court could if the controversy were the 23 subject of a civil action in this state.

24           (e) An arbitrator may issue a protective order to prevent the disclosure of 25 privileged information, confidential information, trade secrets, and other information 26 protected from disclosure to the extent a court could if the controversy were the 27 subject of a civil action in this state.

28           (f) All laws compelling a person under subpoena to testify and all fees for 29 attending a judicial proceeding, deposition, or discovery proceeding as a witness apply 30 to an arbitration proceeding as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in 31 this state.

1 (g) The court may enforce a subpoena or discovery-related order for the 2 attendance of a witness within this state and for the production of records and other 3 evidence issued by an arbitrator in connection with an arbitration proceeding in 4 another state upon conditions determined by the court so as to make the arbitration 5 proceeding fair, expeditious, and cost-effective. A subpoena or discovery-related order 6 issued by an arbitrator in another state shall be served in the manner provided by law 7 for service of subpoenas in a civil action in this state and, on application to the court 8 by a party to the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the manner 9 provided by law for enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action in this state.

10 Sec. 09.43.450. Judicial enforcement of preaward ruling by arbitrator. If 11 an arbitrator makes a preaward ruling in favor of a party to the arbitration proceeding, 12 the party may request the arbitrator to incorporate the ruling into an award under 13 AS 09.43.460. A prevailing party may apply to the court for an expedited order to 14 confirm the award under AS 09.43.490, in which case the court shall summarily 15 decide the application. The court shall issue an order to confirm the award unless the 16 court vacates, modifies, or corrects the award under AS 09.43.500 or 09.43.510.

17 Sec. 09.43.460. Award. (a) An arbitrator shall make a record of an award.
 18 The record must be signed or otherwise authenticated by an arbitrator who concurs 19 with the award. The arbitrator or the arbitration organization shall give notice of the 20 award, including a copy of the award, to each party to the arbitration proceeding.

21 (b) An award shall be made within the time specified by the agreement to 22 arbitrate or, if not specified in the agreement, within the time ordered by the court.
 23 The court may extend or the parties to the arbitration proceeding may agree in a record 24 to extend the time. The court or the parties may extend the time within or after the 25 time specified or ordered. A party waives an objection that an award was not timely 26 made unless the party gives notice of the objection to the arbitrator before receiving 27 notice of the award.

28 Sec. 09.43.470. Change of award by arbitrator. (a) On motion to an 29 arbitrator by a party to an arbitration proceeding, the arbitrator may modify or correct 30 an award

31 (1) on a ground stated in AS 09.43.510(a)(1) or (3);

1 (2) because the arbitrator has not made a final and definite award on a 2 claim submitted by the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or

3 (3) to clarify the award.

4 (b) A motion under (a) of this section shall be made and notice shall be given 5 to all parties within 20 days after the movant receives notice of the award.

6 (c) A party to the arbitration proceeding shall give notice of an objection to the 7 motion within 10 days after receipt of the notice.

8 (d) If an application to the court is pending under AS 09.43.490, 09.43.500, or 9 09.43.510, the court may submit the claim to the arbitrator to consider whether to 10 modify or correct the award

11 (1) on a ground stated in AS 09.43.510(a)(1) or (3);

12 (2) because the arbitrator has not made a final and definite award on a 13 claim submitted by the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or

14 (3) to clarify the award.

15 (e) An award modified or corrected under this section is subject to 16 AS 09.43.460(a) and 09.43.490 - 09.43.510.

17 Sec. 09.43.480. Remedies; fees and expenses of arbitration proceeding. (a)

18 An arbitrator may award punitive damages or other exemplary relief if the award is 19 authorized by law in a civil action involving the same claim and the evidence 20 produced at the hearing justifies the award under the legal standards otherwise 21 applicable to the claim.

22 (b) An arbitrator may award reasonable attorney fees and other reasonable 23 expenses of arbitration if the award is authorized by law in a civil action involving the 24 same claim or by the agreement of the parties to the arbitration proceeding.

25 (c) As to all remedies other than those authorized by (a) and (b) of this section, 26 an arbitrator may order the remedies the arbitrator considers just and appropriate under 27 the circumstances of the arbitration proceeding. The fact that the remedy could not or 28 would not be granted by the court is not a ground for refusing to confirm an award 29 under AS 09.43.490 or for vacating an award under AS 09.43.500.

30 (d) An arbitrator's expenses and fees, together with other expenses, shall be 31 paid as provided in the award.

1 (e) If an arbitrator awards punitive damages or other exemplary relief under 2 (a) of this section, the arbitrator shall specify in the award the basis in fact justifying 3 and the basis in law authorizing the award and shall state the amount of the punitive 4 damages or other exemplary relief separately.

5 Sec. 09.43.490. Confirmation of award. After a party to an arbitration 6 proceeding receives notice of an award, the party may apply to the court for an order 7 confirming the award, at which time the court shall issue a confirming order unless the 8 award is modified or corrected under AS 09.43.470 or 09.43.510 or is vacated under 9 AS 09.43.500.

10 Sec. 09.43.500. Vacating award. (a) On application to the court by a party to 11 an arbitration proceeding, the court shall vacate an award made in the arbitration 12 proceeding if

13 (1) the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue 14 means;

15 (2) there was

16 (A) evident partiality by an arbitrator appointed as a neutral 17 arbitrator;

18 (B) corruption by an arbitrator; or

19 (C) misconduct by an arbitrator prejudicing the rights of a party 20 to the arbitration proceeding;

21 (3) an arbitrator refused to postpone the hearing on showing of 22 sufficient cause for postponement, refused to consider evidence material to the 23 controversy, or otherwise conducted the hearing contrary to AS 09.43.420, so as to 24 prejudice substantially the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding;

25 (4) an arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's powers;

26 (5) there was not an agreement to arbitrate, unless the person 27 participated in the arbitration proceeding without raising the objection under 28 AS 09.43.420(c) not later than the beginning of the arbitration hearing; or

29 (6) the arbitration was conducted without proper notice of the initiation
