3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

4 * Section 1. AS 11.56.740(a) is amended to read:

5 (a) A person commits the crime of violating a protective order if the person is 6 subject to a protective order

7 (1) issued or filed under AS 18.66 and containing a provision listed 8 in AS 18.66.100(c)(1) - (7) and knowingly commits or attempts to commit an act with 9 reckless disregard that the act violates or would violate a provision of the protective 10 order; or

11 (2) issued under AS 18.65.850, 18.65.855, or 18.65.860 and 12 knowingly commits or attempts to commit an act in violation of the order.

13 * Sec. 2. AS 18.65.530(a) is amended to read:

14 (a) Except as provided in (b) or (c) of this section, a peace officer, with or

1 without a warrant, shall arrest a person if the officer has probable cause to believe the 2 person has, either in or outside the presence of the officer, within the previous 12
 3 hours,

4 (1) committed domestic violence, except an offense under 5 AS 11.41.100 - 11.41.130, whether the crime is a felony or a misdemeanor;

6 (2) committed the crime of violating a protective order in violation of 7 AS 11.56.740(a)(1) [AS 11.56.740];

8 (3) violated a condition of release imposed under AS 12.30.027.

9 * Sec. 3. AS 18.65 is amended by adding new sections to read:

10 Article 11. Stalking Protective Orders and Notifications to Stalking Victims.

11 Sec. 18.65.850. Protective orders for stalking. (a) A person who reasonably 12 believes that the person is a victim of stalking that is not a crime involving domestic 13 violence may file a petition in the district or superior court for a stalking protective 14 order against a respondent who is alleged to have committed the stalking. A parent or 15 guardian may file a petition on behalf of a minor.

16 (b) When a petition for a protective order is filed, the court shall schedule a 17 hearing and provide at least 10 days' notice to the respondent of the hearing and of the 18 respondent's right to appear and be heard, either in person or through an attorney. If 19 the court finds by a preponderance of evidence that the respondent has committed 20 stalking against the petitioner, regardless of whether the respondent appears at the 21 hearing, the court may order any relief available under (c) of this section. The 22 provisions of a protective order issued under this section are effective for six months 23 unless earlier dissolved by the court.

24 (c) A protective order issued under this section may

25 (1) prohibit the respondent from threatening to commit or committing 26 stalking;

27 (2) prohibit the respondent from telephoning, contacting, or otherwise
 28 communicating directly or indirectly with the petitioner or a designated household 29 member of the petitioner specifically named by the court;

30 (3) direct the respondent to stay away from the residence, school, or 31 place of employment of the petitioner, or any specified place frequented by the

1 petitioner; however, the court may order the respondent to stay away from the 2 respondent's own residence, school, or place of employment only if the respondent has 3 been provided actual notice of the opportunity to appear and be heard on the petition.

4 (d) If the court issues a protective order under this section, the court shall

5 (1) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order is understood by 6 the petitioner and by the respondent, if present; and

7 (2) have the order delivered to the appropriate local law enforcement
 8 agency for expedited service.

9 Sec. 18.65.855. Ex parte and emergency protective orders for stalking. (a)

10 A person who reasonably believes that the person is a victim of stalking that is not a 11 crime involving domestic violence may file a petition under AS 18.65.850 and request
 12 an ex parte protective order. If the court finds that the petition establishes probable 13 cause that the crime of stalking has occurred, that it is necessary to protect the 14 petitioner from further stalking, and that the petitioner has certified to the court in 15 writing the efforts, if any, that have been made to provide notice to the respondent, the 16 court shall ex parte and without notice to the respondent issue a protective order. An 17 ex parte protective order under this section may grant the protection allowed by 18 AS 18.65.850(c). An ex parte protective order expires 20 days after it is issued unless 19 dissolved earlier by the court at the request of either the petitioner or the respondent
 20 after notice and, if requested, a hearing. If the court issues an ex parte protective 21 order, the court shall have the order delivered to the appropriate law enforcement 22 agency for expedited service.

23 (b) A peace officer, on behalf of and with the consent of a victim of stalking 24 that is not a crime involving domestic violence, may request an emergency protective 25 order from a judicial officer. The request may be made orally or in writing based on 26 the sworn statement of a peace officer, and in person or by telephone. If the court 27 finds probable cause to believe that the petitioner is in immediate danger of stalking 28 based on an allegation of the recent commission of stalking, the court ex parte shall 29 issue an emergency protective order. An emergency protective order may grant the 30 protection allowed by AS 18.65.850(c). An emergency protective order expires 72 31 hours after it is issued unless dissolved earlier by the court at the request of the

1 petitioner. A peace officer who obtains an emergency protective order under this 2 section shall

3 (1) place the provisions of an oral order in writing on a form provided 4 by the court and file the written order with the issuing court by the end of the judicial 5 day after the order is issued;

6 (2) provide a copy of the order to the petitioner; and

7 (3) serve a copy of the order on the respondent.

8 Sec. 18.65.860. Modification of protective orders for stalking. (a) Either 9 the petitioner or the respondent may request modification of a protective order issued 10 under AS 18.65.850 or 18.65.855(a). If a request is made for modification of 11 (1) a protective order, after notice and hearing under AS 18.65.850, the 12 court shall schedule a hearing within 20 days after the date the request is made, except 13 that, if the court finds that the request is meritless on its face, the court may deny the 14 request without a hearing; or

15 (2) an ex parte protective order under AS 18.65.855(a), the court shall 16 schedule a hearing on three days' notice or on shorter notice as the court may 17 prescribe.

18 (b) If the court modifies a protective order under this section, the court shall 19 issue a modified order and shall

20 (1) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order is understood by 21 the petitioner and by the respondent, if present at the hearing; and

22 (2) have the order delivered to the appropriate local law enforcement
23 agency for expedited service.

24 Sec. 18.65.865. Service of process; forms for petitions and orders; fees;
25 warnings; and notification. (a) Service of process of an order issued by the court 26 under AS 18.65.850 - 18.65.860 shall be as provided in AS 18.66.160 for service of 27 process of domestic violence protective orders.

28 (b) The Alaska Court System shall prepare forms for petitions and protective 29 orders and instructions for their use by a person seeking a protective order under 30 AS 18.65.850 - 18.65.860. The forms must conform to the Alaska Rules of Civil 31 Procedure, except that information on the forms may be filled in by legible

1 handwriting. Filing fees may not be charged in any action seeking only the relief
 2 provided in AS 18.65.850 - 18.65.870. Each protective order form must contain the 3 following warning in boldface type: "Violation of this order may be a misdemeanor, 4 punishable by up to one year of incarceration and a fine of up to $5,000."

5 (c) The Department of Public Safety shall develop and make available to law
 6 enforcement agencies in the state a notice that details the rights of victims of stalking
 7 and the services available to them. The form must be similar to that provided to 8 victims of domestic violence under AS 18.65.520. A peace officer investigating a 9 stalking offense shall provide the form to the victim.
