ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

House Bill 1 establishes new procedures for obtaining protective orders for those petitioners who reasonably believe that they are victims of the crime of stalking but who do not have a relationship with the respondent that would allow them to obtain a domestic violence restraining order. This bill also makes it a crime to violate such an order.

The passage of HB 1 would impact the court system because new crimes and new protective orders will require additional court proceedings. This fiscal note does not contain a specific dollar amount because estimating the number of new crimes likely to be charged and the number of petitions likely to be filed is too speculative at this time. However, if the impact of either change is significant the court system may return to the legislature with a request for additional funding.
