ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The ICC Termination Act of 1995 (Public Law 104-88) contained a provision that required the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) to adopt regulations requiring states to disqualify drivers of commercial vehicles that violate federal, state, or local laws or regulations pertaining to a railroad-highway grade crossing. The act also prohibited employers from allowing drivers to violate these provisions.

The number of railroad-highway grade crossing violations in Alaska is very low and it is not anticipated that this provision will have any substantial effect on drivers, employers, or state agencies.
