ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The Alaska Commission on Aging (ACOA) is due to sunset on June 30, 2004. The ACOA is tasked with helping older Alaskans lead dignified, independent, and useful lives. ACOA is authorized to administer and coordinate state programs for older Alaskans and to administer federal programs funded under provisions of the Older Americans Act (OAA). The ACOA is required by federal regulations. Section 305 of the Older Americans Act requires each state to designate an agency as the sole state agency to 1) develop and administer a state plan and 2) coordinate all state activities related to the Older Americans Act and 3) serve as an effective and visible (continued on page 2) advocate for the elderly, and 4) distribute funds to individuals with the greatest economic or social need. The Department of Health and Social Services (DHSS) is designated as the sole state agency. The Division of Senior and Disabilities Services (DSDS) is responsible for coordinating all state activities and granting funds for older Alaskans. The ACOA has been charged with the responsibility of developing a state plan and working with the DSDS to implement the plan, and to serve as an effective advocate for the elderly. If the ACOA expires, the Department of Health and Social Services (DHSS) stands to lose $13 million in federal dollars for senior services.
