ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

House Bill 533 allows a person proceeding through the administrative adjudication process under AS 44.62.330 - 44.62.630 to move his or her case to the superior court if the person alleges that the agency has unreasonably delayed the process and further delay will cause the person significant and irreparable damage. Once a case is before the court it may either determine the case on its merits, order that the dispute be handled by another form of dispute resolution or establish a deadline for the agency to issue a final administrative decision.

This bill changes existing law by allowing a person to bring an administrative adjudication to the superior court prior to the issuance of a final agency decision. The court will be impacted by the number of cases that come before it under this provision. However, estimating the number of such cases is too speculative to support a fiscal note. Should the number of cases prove to be significant then the court may return to the legislature for additional funding.
