ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)
 The bill proposes a number of changes in the law regarding criminal defenses and criminal procedures. It addresses self-defense, and other defenses such as acting in the heat of passion and using deadly force in defense of others. It also would put some limits on collateral attacks on prior convictions. Additionally, the bill adopts a rational procedure for courts to follow in deciding claims of privilege and the granting of immunity, and it makes changes in sentencing procedures.

 Passage of this legislation will have no fiscal impact on the Department of Law.
