ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The bill clarifies DPS' current practices for fingerprint-based criminal record checks in order to (1) ensure that DOE accepts a name-based criminal record check in lieu of a fingerprint-based check when an applicant for a teaching license is physically incapable of being fingerprinted; and (2) ensure that Alaska remains eligible to submit fingerprints to the FBI for national criminal record checks for persons applying for sensitive positions or licenses, by rewording certain statutes to meet requirements in federal law (Public Law 92-544). If the statutes are not reworded, the FBI will no longer accept fingerprints for national criminal record checks for certain licenses/positions after June 30, 2004. Since the bill preserves the status quo, there is no fiscal impact to DPS.
