ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill clarifies the exemption currently authorized for widows and widowers of senior citizens and disabled veterans who receive the property tax exemption. Currently, state law requires the widow or widower to be 60 years of age in order to continue to receive the exemption. This bill removes that requirement and authorizes the exemption to continue until the widow/widower remarries.

This legislation has no direct fiscal impact on the operations of the department.
