

HOUSE JOURNAL

ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

February 5, 2003

Sixteenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Kott at 10:08 a.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representatives Joule and Kookesh had been previously excused from a call of the House today. Representative Moses was absent.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, The Reverend Ron Covey of the Douglas Community United Methodist Church. Representative Fate moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Mr. Speaker, Honorable Representatives, members of the staff, distinguished guests and visitors: Alaskans enjoy a rich diversity of religious beliefs and spirituality, and it is with deepest respect for all that this prayer is offered. Let us pray.

Creator Spirit,

We are surrounded by Your creation. We hear the sounds of Your creation: the song of the humpback whale, the roar of the mighty bear, the bark of the sea lion, and the cry of eagle and raven. We also hear the sounds of Your people: the people who live in beautiful houses, the people who live on the street, the people in the villages, the people in the cities, and the people who live by the sea. Grant that we might not only hear their voices, but listen--listen--listen. Then, when we have truly heard all of these speak, guide us as we weigh our thoughts, weigh our words, weigh our actions, and cast our votes. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Crawford.
