TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Representative Joule had been previously excused from a call of the House today. Representatives Berkowitz, Cissna, Crawford, Gara, Gruenberg, Guttenberg, Kerttula, Kohring, Kookesh, McGuire, Moses, and Rokeberg were absent and their presence was noted later. "Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches: but let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord." (Jeremiah 9:23-24)

Let us pray.

Gracious God in Heaven, we come before You today with grateful hearts and openness to direction from You. We are grateful to You and to the people of this land that have entrusted us with this responsibility in working out policy for this state. We are grateful for those who have gone before us in building and maintaining this form of government that gives us the opportunity to bring our convictions, philosophies, and passions to the public debate.

We are grateful for the richness that Alaskans send in their chosen representatives, in the diversity of culture and character and their commitment to doing what is best for all our people. This job is bigger than we are as individuals and even as a collective body, therefore, we come before Your presence for guidance in the way we do things and the things we do.

Our trust is that through the passion of our lives, Your purposes will be fulfilled, and we will be a blessing to the people we serve. We pause to give thanks for Your grace in protecting our fellow laborers, Reggie, Eric, and Mary and her son in their time of need.

As we prepare to close out this session, we acknowledge our need for divine wisdom in creativity and vision for the well-being of this wonderful people we represent. May Your mercy and truth prevail in this country. In the name of Christ the Lord, we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Wolf.
