

HOUSE JOURNAL

ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

May 21, 2003

One Hundred Twenty-first Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Kott at 12:06 p.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representative Joule had been previously excused from a call of the House today. Representative Moses was absent and his presence was noted later.

Representative Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that Representative Kapsner be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Heinze. Representative Fate moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

"I will lift up my eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help comes from the Lord who made heaven and earth." (Psalm 121)

God on high, hear our prayer. Step into the quiet chambers of our hearts. And there in the vacuum of quietness and stillness, abide with us.

As we have peeled through the layers of diversity in this room, burn into our conscious memories that those opinions - past, present, and future - are the balance of our collective wisdom.

As we part from one another, let us enshrine that balance with clarity of mind. In the coming days - as each chapter of our lives unfolds, as each moment of joy or sorrow befalls us - God, we ask You to walk with us and bind each of us to You and one to another. In God and in Zip-a-dee-doo-dah, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Foster.

INTRODUCTION, FIRST READING, AND REFERENCE OF HOUSE BILLS

HB 329

HOUSE BILL NO. 329 by Representative McGuire, entitled:

"An Act relating to retirement incentive programs for the public employees' retirement system, the judicial retirement system, and the teachers' retirement system; relating to separation incentives for certain state employees; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the State Affairs, Labor & Commerce, and Finance Committees.

HB 330

HOUSE BILL NO. 330 by the House Rules Committee by request of the Governor, entitled:

"An Act shortening the time periods after which certain unclaimed property is presumed to be abandoned; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Labor & Commerce and State Affairs Committees.

The following fiscal note(s) apply:

1. Fiscal, Dept. of Revenue

The Governor's transmittal letter dated May 20, 2003, follows:

"Dear Speaker Kott:

Under the authority of art. III, sec. 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill that would amend AS 34.45, the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act, to shorten the time periods after which certain unclaimed property is presumed to be abandoned and must be transferred to the custody of the state.

Alaska's current unclaimed property statutes are based on the 1981 version of the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act adopted by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. That Act, and Alaska's Act, are intended to prevent people from losing their right to property that is justifiably theirs by requiring that unclaimed property be transferred to the state to act as custodian once the property is presumed abandoned. In 1995, the uniform law commissioners revised their Act to streamline the process by which states deal with unclaimed property and to better protect property owners.

One of the changes proposed in the 1995 revision is a general shortening of the time periods after which most unclaimed property is presumed to be abandoned and must be transferred to the custody of the state. Shortening the time period benefits both the state and the owner of the unclaimed property. As the custodian for the unclaimed property, the property is available to the state as a source of revenue, pending the rightful owner's claim. The rightful owner benefits by having the property transferred at an earlier date to a perpetual custodian with the stability to assure that the property will be there when the owner comes forward to claim it.

I urge your early and favorable consideration of the bill.

Sincerely,
/s/
Frank H. Murkowski
Governor"

HB 331

HOUSE BILL NO. 331 by the House Rules Committee by request of the Governor, entitled:

"An Act relating to federal requirements for governmental plan and other qualifications for the teachers' retirement system, the public employees' retirement system, and the judicial retirement system; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the State Affairs, Labor & Commerce, and Finance Committees.

The following fiscal note(s) apply:

1. Zero, Dept. of Administration

The Governor's transmittal letter dated May 20, 2003, follows:

"Dear Speaker Kott:

Under the authority of art. III, sec. 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to federal requirements for governmental plan qualifications for the teachers' retirement system, the public employees' retirement system, and the judicial retirement system, as required by the federal Internal Revenue Service.

This bill also would further implement changes that allow retirement system members to selectively transfer pre-tax money, or make additional contributions, to repay indebtedness and to purchase permissible service credits in the Alaska retirement systems. These changes would allow members to better plan their retirement and to make their financial future more secure. Taking advantage of such tax law provisions would strengthen the retirement systems in a cost-effective manner.

Sincerely,
/s/
Frank H. Murkowski
Governor"
