ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

March 7, 2003

Forty-sixth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Therriault at 10:08 a.m.

The roll showed fifteen members present. Senators Davis, Guess, Hoffman, Olson were excused from a call of the Senate. Senator Taylor was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Reverend C. Ronald Covey of the Douglas Community United Methodist Church. Senator Elton moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Mr. President, Honorable Senators, members of the staff, distinguished guests and visitors, let us take this moment for prayer and reflection.

O Living Spirit, Your presence is very real, for You fill every fiber of our being. Our hearts and minds bear faint reflections of Your love and wisdom. We need not search for You, for You are here. Today, we would ask of You a vision: a vision that is good and noble, a vision that sees what can be done for our great land instead of what cannot, a vision that captures the wisdom of the elders and the spirit of the pioneers who found that cooperation is better than opposition and working together more productive than working alone. Give us a big vision, Creator, for this is a big land with big possibilities. Then, with the vision before us, be our guiding Spirit and grant us the strength and resolve of heart and mind and soul and body to turn that vision into reality. Amen.

Senator Cowdery led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Ben Stevens moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the forty-fifth legislative day and Senate and House Joint Journal Supplement No. 5 be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.
