ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE -- SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Monday

April 26, 2004

One Hundred Sixth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Therriault at 11:10 a.m.

The roll showed nineteen members present. Senator Hoffman was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Saralyn Tabachnick of the Jewish Community of Juneau. Senator Olson moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Alaskans enjoy a rich diversity of religious and spiritual beliefs, and it is with deep respect for all that I offer this prayer on behalf of and for the Senators as they seek to know and do the highest good for Alaska and the Nation, in the work of the Senate.

Please guide us and open our hearts so that we are able to listen with compassion and understanding, to speak calmly and with kindness, to look not for right and wrong but rather to attend to what is fair and just.

In representing the well being, welfare and dignity of all citizens living throughout the state, from those in cities of tens of thousands to those in villages of tens and hundreds, teach us all to be equal contributors to the beauty of the whole, to discover our unique qualities and to express them in ways that exemplify harmony and truth.

We live in a state rich with beauty and splendor of the natural world. Let us honor the magnificence of life in us as in nature, and may we be a source of peace, joy and light each in our own lives, and in the lives of one another. Amen.

Senator Wilken led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
