18 "Sec. 14.25.315. Retirement plan choice. (a) A teacher who is first hired on 19 or after July 1, 2005, may participate either in the defined benefits plan established in 20 AS 14.25.009 - 14.25.220 or the defined contribution plan established in AS 14.25.310
21 - 14.25.590. The teacher may make a choice between the available retirement plans 22 within 30 days after the date of employment, on a form provided by the administrator.
23 If the teacher fails to make a timely choice under this section, the provisions of

24-LS0637\R.8

1 AS 14.25.310 - 14.25.590 shall apply to the teacher during the period of employment.

2 (b) After the 31st day of employment, the teacher may not change from one
3 retirement plan to another. The retirement plan determined to apply on the 31st day of 4 employment shall be considered to apply beginning on the first day the teacher is 5 employed and the day the retirement plan is determined.

6 (c) A teacher who terminates employment and is later rehired by an employer 7 may again exercise the option provided in this section only if, on the date of 8 reemployment, the option in this section is available to all teachers first hired at the 9 time the teacher is rehired.

10 (d) The administrator shall notify the employer of a teacher as soon as 11 possible regarding the retirement plan applicable to that teacher, and the employer 12 shall make the appropriate teacher and employer contributions required by the 13 applicable retirement plan for that teacher."

5 "Sec. 39.35.705. Retirement plan choice. (a) An employee who is first hired
6 on or after July 1, 2005, may choose to participate either in the defined benefits plan 7 established in AS 39.35.095 - 39.35.680 or the defined contribution plan established in 8 AS 39.35.700 - 39.35.990. The employee may make a choice between the available 9 retirement plans within 30 days after the date of employment, on a form provided by 10 the administrator. If the employee fails to make a timely choice under this section, the 11 provisions of AS 39.35.700 - 39.35.990 shall apply to the employee during the period 12 of employment.

13 (b) After the 31st day of employment, the employee may not change from one 14 retirement plan to another. The retirement plan determined to apply on the 31st day of 15 employment shall be considered to apply beginning on the first day the employee is 16 employed and the day the retirement plan is determined.

17 (c) A employee who terminates employment and is later rehired may again 18 exercise the option provided in this section only if, at the time of rehire, the option in 19 this section is available to all employees first hired at the time the employee is rehired.

20 (d) The administrator shall notify the employer of a employee as soon as 21 possible regarding the retirement plan applicable to that employee, and the employer 22 shall make the appropriate employee and employer contributions required by the 23 applicable retirement plan for that employee."
