ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This measure will prohibit the state and its political subdivisions from expending funds in support of or opposition to ballot questions. Current law prohibits the expenditure of public money to support or oppose a candidate, but permits the state and its political subdivisions to expend money in support of or opposition to a ballot question, if the funds are specifically appropriated for that purpose. Municipalities and school districts will be most affected by this change. This bill will have no fiscal impact.
