ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This legislation is enabling legislation and creates no additional expenses for the Alaska Department of Fish and Game (ADF&G). The promulgation of the regulations required by this legislation is already covered by ADF&G's existing budget. A zero fiscal note assumes that ADF&G will not be conducting hold inspections and that the reporting of harvests and sales taken within the special harvest area will be accomplished through the existing fish ticket catch reporting system.
