ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This legislation amends the business licensing tobacco endorsement statutes. It provides for civil penalties to be assessed against an agent or employee of a business owner who holds a tobacco endorsement instead of having penalties assessed only against the business owner who holds a tobacco endorsement. This legislation will generate new revenue from civil penalties, however, an amount cannot be established since the penalty is dependent on a violation occurring and the severity of the violation. New funds are not required to implement this legislation.
