ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)
 HB399 will not impact (operational) expenses related to the Adult Protective Services Unit within the Division of Senior and Disability Services. The functional responsibility and authority proposed by HB 399 will be vested with The Office of Public Advocacy within the Department of Administration. DSDS is coordinating with OPA and other extensions of State Government that manage or respond to reports of elder abuse/fraud as appropriate to present an action model should the tenants of HB399 be passed as legislation to ensure all concerned entities operate accordingly within the bill provisions in a responsive manner.
