ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The legislation codifies substance abuse treatment programs/therapeutic court projects that were set forth in law in 2001 in HB172. The legislation also specifies the types of programs or treatments the court may consider and removes conflicting mitigating sentencing language in AS 28.35.030(b)(p) and AS 28.25.032(g)(r). The bill spells out the procedures the court shall follow to allow the defendant to participate in a court-ordered treatment program, and sets forth certain conditions the court may impose before allowing such treatment. As the legislation primarily codifies what already is occurring, passage of the legislation will not have a fiscal impact on the Department of Corrections.
