ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill follows up on a comprehensive advance directives measure passed by the Legislature and signed into law in 2004. HB442 amends current law in several areas, including the validity of health care directives from other states, clarifying which physicians can issue or revoke health care directives on behalf of a patient, and revising provisions regarding do not resuscitate orders.

Though EMTs and other first responders in Alaska will have to be aware of changes enacted in this bill, there is no additional fiscal impact on the Department of Health and Social Services.
