ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

SB56 modifies state law governing the presumptive sentencing of felony offenders in Alaska, in response to the United States Supreme Court decision, Blakely v. Washington. The legislation proposes to amend Alaska's sentencing laws to avoid the worst consequences of Blakely, which could make it difficult for judges to consider all relevant factors in sentencing, causing complications throughout the criminal justice process. The modified presumptive sentencing structure proposed in SB56 primarily will impact the process and not the end result of felony sentences; therefore the legislation will have a negligible, if any, effect on the length of sentences imposed. The Department of Corrections does not anticipate a fiscal impact to the Division of Institutions from the passage of this legislation.
