ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill would, as a matter of sovereign immunity, limit the award of attorney fees against the state and municipalities. Though the bill will apply to almost all actions against the state and municipalities, it will have a particular effect on attorney fees awarded to parties determined by the courts to be public interest litigants. HB 145, passed by the legislature in 2003, has been challenged in court and found by the superior court to be unconstitutional because it was viewed as requiring a court rule change, thus needing a two-third vote by both houses of the legislature, which it did not receive. In addition the court found it to be an unconstitutional denial of due process and equal protection insofar as it required public interest litigants to pay attorneys fees. That decision is being appealed to the Alaska Supreme Court. This bill responds to the Superior Court decision by narrowly focusing on the award of fees against the state or municipality and limiting the award to the amount applicable under Civil Rule 82 unless
