ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The bill adds a new section under AS 11.61 (Offenses Against Public Order) prohibiting the electronic distribution of indecent material to minors. Indecent material is defined in the bill as materials depicting acts defined as unlawful exploitation of a minor as spelled out in AS 11.41.455(a)(1) - (7). The bill applies to distribution of indecent materials by a defendant to persons under the age of 16 or whom the defendant believed to be under the age of 16. The bill makes the offense a class C felony unless, at the time of the offense, the defendant was required to register as a sex offender of child kidnapper, in which case the offense would be a class B felony.

The Department of Law does not anticipate many cases will be prosecuted as a result of passage of this legislation and estimate no fiscal impact as a result.
