ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill creates the felony offense of first-degree unlawful evasion for conduct related to felony charges. It also prohibits temporary or periodic bail release.

Due to the new felony crime, this bill is expected to increase the work associated with cases that were previously filed as misdemeanor unlawful evasion. It is, however, not possible to estimate the fiscal impact of making unlawful evasion for felony cases a felony. The Agency, therefore, submits an indeterminate fiscal note.
