Greatest Power:

We assembled here are prisoners of our own individual experience - members of the many diverse world views encompassed within our precious Alaska. But as different as each of us may be, we have each been called to serve You and Your greater purpose. That purpose is a sacred trust for a plan beyond our comprehension.

This doubled servitude, to You and to our neighbors throughout this great state, is a service of joy. We learn to bring our various viewpoints, experiences, talents, and we learn to work with and listen to each other. We fulfill our own destinies while playing our small part in the ever-so-much-larger tapestry of life that spans creation. Being human, we will embellish and make grandiose our part in this mysterious plan, but before You, in attempting to comprehend Your true grandeur, we must give our awe and our unceasing gratitude for the richness of our lot.

Greatest Power, Creator, as mere humans we are beneficiaries of such wealth! Our duty to those who are not as blessed; remembering through each hour of every day this wondrous gift of life; seeking to be respectful of all; striving to see the greater good and asking less for ourselves are ways that we can pledge our humble thanks to You.

Greatest Power and our Creator, we are rich beyond measure. Thank You.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Gruenberg.
