In deepest respect for the religious beliefs of each person here, I invite you into a time of prayer and reflection. Let us pray.

Gracious God, at the dawning of this new legislative year we thank You for the honor and the responsibility of serving entrusted to us by the people of Alaska. We thank You for each person here. With our individual uniqueness, weld us into a unity of purpose enabling us as a House to be responsible caretakers of the many resources entrusted to this state, both human and natural. We ask mightily of You: Give us that rock-solid integrity that strives for the good of all, lest we become simply self-serving actors; sharpen our sight to see those struggling to put food on their families' table; sensitize our hearing to the voiceless and poor who have no one to represent them; and lift us above next election concerns and short-sighted partisanship to be truly statesmen and stateswomen. This I pray in the name of the One who came not to be served but to serve, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

An Honor Guard from the Alaska Boy Scouts Council, Packs 5 and 10, composed of Cub Scouts Michael Dale, Vaughen Ecklund, Abram Leigh, Kristopher Lowry, Bradley Peterson, Josh Rauwolf, Jaren Willis, and Reid Willis presented the Colors.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Coghill.
