Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

This day I first speak of the heart, the will, and the spirit. Let us join the heart, the will, and the spirit in each of us. The heart - our peace center; the will - our willingness to go beyond our needs to those in greater need; the spirit - our basic nature which comes to us from the highest power and defines who we are.

I also speak of light and love:

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into the minds of us all.

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into the hearts of us all.

Let the Plan of Light and Love work together
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.

Let the heart, the will, and the spirit join in us and let the light, the love, and the power taken together work to make us better than we deserve. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Dahlstrom.
