

HOUSE JOURNAL

ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE - SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

April 19, 2006

One Hundred First Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Harris at 10:12 a.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representatives Chenault, Kelly, and Weyhrauch were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Beverly Smith of the First Church of Christ, Scientist. Representative McGuire moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With deep respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer.

Dear God, the All-Power and Presence of the Universe,

Open our hearts and minds to Your fullness today. Let the abundant goodness that You are providing to each of Your loved children be evident to us. Let us know that Your righteous judgment is supreme and that we reflect Your nature. Therefore, the wisdom, intelligence, and perspicacity needed to legislate and govern equitably and efficiently are ours as Your expression.

Keep us focused on Your will so that fear, selfishness, impatience, or ignorance cannot deceive us into believing that You are not all, and that You do not have a satisfactory answer for every problem that comes before us. Let us be still to hear Your voice and then follow Your direction.

Thank You, Father, for the opportunity to serve You and Your creation in this great state of Alaska.

With hearts full of gratitude for Your love, we praise Your holy name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Crawford.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 100th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

A House State Affairs Committee letter of intent for HCS SB 250(STA), signed by Representative Seaton, Chair, follows:

"It is the intent of the Legislature to request the Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault to draft a strategic plan. This plan will assist the Council in fulfilling its statutory mandates at AS 18.66.010 through AS 18.66.990. It will assist the legislature in determining the effectiveness of the Council in addressing this vital concern of Alaskans. This report is to be submitted to the legislature on the first day of the 2007 legislative session. The report should detail the efforts of the Council on following issues:

1. Consistent with the recommendations of the 2005 LB&A audit, the Council needs to consult to a greater degree with the Department of Education and Early Development and develop curriculum on the cause, prevention, and treatment of domestic violence and sexual assault.
2. Also consistent with the recommendations of the 2005 audit, the Council needs to work with the Department of Health and Social Services to develop standards and procedures as required in AS 18.66.300 for the delivery of services to victims of domestic violence by health care facilities.
3. In its Missions and Measures the Council needs to provide updated results and strategies with measurable objectives that will indicate whether the Council is progressing on its objectives.
4. The Council needs to establish a written plan for coordination of departmental responses to domestic violence and sexual assault.
5. The Council is responsible for holding public hearings on domestic violence and sexual assault. The Council needs to establish a plan to ensure continued public input on the state's response to these crimes."
