ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE - SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

April 26, 2006

One Hundred Eighth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Harris at 10:11 a.m.

Roll call showed 35 members present. Representatives Chenault, McGuire, and Meyer were absent and their presence was noted later.

Representative Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that Representatives Kerttula and Samuels be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Stuart Cohen of the Congregation Sukkot Shalom. Representative Dahlstrom moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Today I have just a short prayer and just a few words to say beforehand. The Jews are thought of as, or called "The Chosen People." There is a lot of misunderstanding about "chosen for what or why" even among Jews. And if you look at the story that the Hebrew scriptures tell, it is a story of people starting in a place with no law, with no right and wrong. Then gradually as they become more aware of right and wrong, they are charged and the Jews are chosen to try to create, to help create a just society on this earth. And I think in that sense, all of us here are chosen. I think all people are chosen for that. Especially in a democracy, those of us who have been elected are chosen for that by the people we represent - and maybe of a higher imperative - and it is an honor and a burden and a privilege. So with that in mind:

Baruch afta Adonai, eloheinu melekh ha-olam.

Blessed art Thou, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with Your commandments. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Rokeberg.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 107th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
