Father, I am grateful for Your concern for us. I'm grateful You are a loving heavenly father. You know the issues that we face and I am so grateful that I can come to You today on behalf of this body of legislators and seek Your guidance.

Lord, I pray for our President and ask that You would guide him in his deliberations and give him wisdom in the matters that he faces. I pray for our military who are out there on the fighting line, protecting the freedoms that we enjoy right here in this room. I thank You for our governor and for these legislators, the House of Representatives and I pray that, this year, as they face the pressing issues of our society and this state, I pray You grant them wisdom. As they deal with major and minor situations, You will help them seek Your face in these matters and that, as a result, You will be honored and glorified.

Thank You for Your presence with us today. I commit this time to You now, In Christ's name. Amen.

Senator Wilken led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
